EIFEL DAY

The Eifel is one of the best-known natural regions in eastern Belgium.

You'll be plunged straight into a forest and (re)discover Lake Bütgenbach.

On day 1, you can choose between three walking distances: 5, 10 or 20 km.

This will actually be the President's march.

There will also be a 25 km and a 50 km bike route.

Walking :

Start from 8am to 2pm

Cycling :

25 km or 50 km

Start from 8am to 2pm

Arrival until 5pm.

12/06/2026

Worldwide, the Belgian Ardennes are best known for the events of World War II. Despite these tragic episodes, the many forests and rivers have survived. The region has so many waterways that it is also known as Ardenne Bleue (Blue Ardennes). Reinhardstein Castle (picture above) will be admired by marathon participants on our second day.

Swimming (indoor pool):

300m or 500m

From 8am to 11am and from 3pm to 5pm.

Cycling:

25 km or 50 km

Start from 8am to 2pm and end by 5pm.

Walking :

5 km, 10 km or 23 km

Start from 7am to 2pm and end by 5pm.

42 km

Start from 7am to 9am and end by 5pm.

13/06/2026

HIGH FENS DAY

The High Fens region houses an endangered fauna and flora. Marathon runners will see landscapes that are as unique as stunning.

The 50km route will reach the highest point of Belgium.

Did you know that? A six-metre stairway was built here to climb to 700 m altitude.

Swimming (indoor pool):

300 m or 500 m

From 8am to 11am and from 3pm to 5pm.

Walking:

5 km ,10 km or 20 km → Start from 7am to 2pm and end by 5pm.

42 km or 50 km → Start from 6am to 9am and end by 5pm

The closing ceremony starts at 6pm.
